While traveling to South Africa and while live painting during a worship conference the Lord showed me an eagle and the continent of Africa. He said that my blood has set you free and you will continue to be victorious and carry great power in every direction you move with me. The inner strength that I am giving you will carry you through this next season of your life. I have covered you with my blood.

I have promised continued freedom and will move mightily in your midst just believe and wait on me!

Isaiah 40:31

But those who wait on the LORD Shall renew their strength; They shall mount up with wings like eagles, They shall run and not be weary, They shall walk and not faint.
